“ Our hearts break for Karen, Debra, Beth and all of the family. Aunt Allene was a sweet, wonderful, loving and funny lady. I remember many trips to visit, nights spent and breakfasts cooked and eaten. One of my fondest memories is a little Western six shooter that hangs from the pull cord in the kitchen. I can't count the number of times I played with it and begged her to let me have it. She would smile and say that she needed it for the light. Then, she'd add, "Maybe one day."

Her struggle is over, and the struggle is now the family's as life without her begins. My prayer is that the grace of God and the peace that surpasses all human understanding will fill each family member's heart and mind. Our hearts, prayers and love are with you all.
