“ Tonya, at this time my prayers are filled with you in mind. As you said, nobody is ever ready for this day! But just as the years have somehow passed quickly since Uncle Robert's passing so shall this difficult time pass too. Take comfort that those years will be bringing you closer to being reunited with them and oh the stories our loved ones will have to tell us then! The day she was born your mom began a wonderful journey where she placed you at its peak and on September 5th she left on another journey taking with her your love, her faith and her confidence that she will see you again. I pray for your strength cousin as you go through these tough days. God speed Aunt Arley Ann we will miss you!
