“ So very sorry for your loss. Take solace in knowing he is with our Lord and Savior and one day we will be reunited.

“ Chris was one of the nicest guys I've met thus far. He was an animal lover, adored his children, would give you the shirt off of his back if needed. Every year he would remember my birthday on Facebook and we'd message back and forth and get all caught up. I will always remember his good qualities. He had a chuckle that would always make you smile. And a singing voice like an angel. I remember him trying to teach me how to scale and clean a fish. I thought the fish was dead, but it started flopping around when I put the knife on it and Chris laughed so hard, at the time I didn't think it was funny. It's so comforting to know that his pain is gone and he's reunited with those that love him. Hopefully, one day soon, we can all join him and our maker and live in harmony, peace, and love. This world was a better place knowing Chris Slayton. Rest In Peace my friend.

“ I remember Sitting on the Front Pew of the Pooler Assembly Of God, You and aunt Tina and the Glory Bound sang Mid Night Cry.... Mom was in her Wheelchair and the beautiful voice of all sent so much comfort to her and all of us.. My you now rest forever with no pain and a new body in Christ... One day we will meet again and have a reunion like none other spending time with our Lord and Savior... You will be missed by all but most important you are on the hands of the Creator....
