“ I just found out , my heart is broken!!! Sonya & I we're friends through church. We went to camp together and enjoyed hanging out when I came for summer visits to my grandparents. We were in each other's weddings. I would always see her when I would come to church with my parents recently. May God hold you in the palm of his hands. My deepest condolences,

“ Sonja and I recently ran into each other after nearly 20 years. She had the same warm, open smile I had always remembered. It was like no time had passed at all since we both taught at the original William James Middle School. I will always cherish her memory and the joy of seeing her again in our mini reunion. My heartfelt prayers for her family.

“ Sonya was my first friend upon moving to Statesboro. She introduced me to the phrases, “ohwie” and “aw foot” which are still a part of my vocabulary, always heard in my mind in her sweet, gentle voice. I am sorry that that voice will no longer be heard. My deepest sympathies to Sonya’s parents, siblings, and children. Praying for peace and comfort for you all.

“ Sonya was a true friend..The loss of Sonya and her caring nature is a great loss to all that knew her. She always shared how much she loved her family. Her children meant so much to her. She shared this with me recently. I know she had gone through some challenges and I hope she found solace for her love was great. She recently told me of her moms birthday celebration. She was all about family & friends. I will miss you my friend.

“ Sonya and I both wanted to get married the same weekend, so we always knew each other's anniversaries. I got the church on June 18 and she was married the 19th. Then we discovered that we both named daughters Cara. My Cara was born on Sonya's birthday. Whenever I think of Pittman Park, I think of Sonya. All of my church memories have Sonya in them. She leaves behind a legacy of faith, family and love. She will be missed.

“ Sonya was a dear sweet person who loved her children and her parents. I loved when she came to visit me after I returned from cancer treatment in Florida. She brought a little gift and we sat and talked for a long time. Even though she was facing challenges she still had the courage to smile and move forward.
